

Questions on Cohen, “Freedom, Equality, Pornography”

1. Cohen says that ‘protections of expressive liberty’ (that is, freedom of speech) serve an ‘expressive’ and a ‘deliberative’ interest. What are these interests? Have we seen these (alleged) benefits of free speech in other writers, or are they new with Cohen?
2. What does Cohen think is the ‘expressive interest’ in sexually explicit materials?
3. What does he think is the ‘deliberative interest’?
